HOTELS WITH HEART & SOUL

Scotland's Hotel & Leisure Club, Pitlochry

This Victorian style, dog friendly hotel is one of the leading hotels within the charming town of Pitlochry in Perthshire. One of the largest hotels owned by the Crerar Hotel Group, this hotel is made up of 72 bedrooms, a leisure club with treatment rooms, a traditional lounge area as well as the fine dining Faskally Restaurant and MACNABS Bar & Grill. Scotland's Hotel can also accommodate groups, corporate stays, and a variety of events, including meetings, parties and entertainment weekends.

Pitlochry is ideally placed within the heart of Scotland, in the shadow of the speckled mountain of Ben Vrackie and beside River Tummel. Visitors often enjoy exploring the highland scenery of the local area or admiring the fascinating stone Victorian buildings that comprise the majority of this quaint village, which has enjoyed mass appeal since the days of Queen Victoria who visited in 1866.

General Manager

Crerar Hotels are seeking a strong General Manager with a proven record of accomplishment within the hospitality sector; ideally the candidate will have a key leadership style that is on the floor and team inclusive, and solid experience of room's management. We ask the General Manager to take ownership of this business and drive it forward to a new level, the candidate is expected to tap into all growth opportunities, improve the online reputation, and be in control of all costs.

Current sales on the books, reputation goals and other key performance metrics are heading in the right direction. The largest opportunities are to improve the online conversion rate through reputation and effective rate management, increase midweek corporate and leisure business, which are lagging against other stronger performing metrics.

In addition to industry experience, we ask for an individual with energy, a positive mental attitude and a zest for life. If you believe you have the quality background that we seek, a strong work ethic and a passion for excellence, we would like to hear from you.

In return we offer:

Excellent basic salary: A high value rolling performance related profit share incentive. A successful General Manager, who achieves the hotel targets, could expect remuneration of (blend of salary and incentives) circa £45,000.
